

The URI Bilateral Exchange Application Process

STEP 1: Creating your URIAbroad Account

URIAbroad is the online application account for international exchange students (non-degree) intending to study at The University of Rhode Island. To initiate your own online student exchange application, you will first be prompted to activate a new URIAbroad user account.

Please start by clicking on the following hyperlink:
URIAbroad Account Activation -Step 1

Please indicate how you will be logging in:

- ☐ I have a URI username and password.
- ☐ I have login credentials to this site that I received by email.
- ☒ I do not have login credentials to this site.

Submit

➤ Select your URIAbroad login credentials and click 'Submit':

➤ On the following page, complete the 'New User Form' questions and then click 'Create Account'

*Once you complete this 'new user form', an email will be automatically sent to the email account that you indicated within the form. (Important: please check your email's spam folder for this sent email as this email may first be sent to your email spam.)

STEP 2: Starting your URIAbroad Exchange Application

Once you have retrieved the URIAbroad email notice that was sent for you with your login credentials, you can initiate your application in URIAbroad.

➤ To start your online exchange/visiting application, please click here: Incoming Bilateral Exchange – Step 2

➤ Once you click on the above application link, you will be brought to the specific exchange application cover page, which will inform of the various application requirements and important exchange program details. Please carefully read through these various details prior to initiating your online application, by clicking 'Apply Now'.

STEP 3: Completing your URIAbroad Application

It is important to note that the URIAbroad application process is divided into two sections:*

Section 1 = 'Pre-Decision Phase'

Deadline: October 15th

Section 2 = 'Post-Admission Phase'

Deadline: (exact dates will be provided after admission)

RESOURCES

➤ To preview the tasks outlined within each of the two application sections, please refer to pages 3-6 of this packet.

➤ The Office of International Education (OIE) is ready to help you as you apply, register for classes, find housing, and make the most of your experience at URI. The following OIE webpages will serve as important resources for international exchange applicants throughout your pre-program preparations:
